DEPUTY CLERK

Motion to Dismiss Magistrate's Recommendations

1. Help, the Federal Court of the Middle District for Pennsylvania is trying to abridge Plaintiff's freedom of religion in the above-captioned case.
2. The Court proposes to dismiss Plaintiff's religious freedom case against The Blue Mt. School District with a barrage of legaleize (See the Magistrate's brief).
3. The truth is the Court threatens to dismiss Plaintiff's pleading, even though Plaintiff's pleading is patterned after the Kitzmiller case in the same district (See the Magistrate's brief).
4. The truth is both cases have substantially the same Defendant, namely a school district.
5. The truth is the Court has refused to allow Plaintiff to subpoena copies of the records of BMSD biology teacher Anne Cryer for the month of January, 2011, when she taught "evolution". Thus Plaintiff is deprived of his rights found on pages 7 – 16 of the Magistrate's brief.
6. The truth is the teaching of evolution is unscientific (See the already filed brief.).
7. The truth is evolution is merely a codeword for Atheism (See the already filed brief.).
8. The truth is the Court will allow the government, i.e. The Blue Mt. School District, to tax Plaintiff to help support the teaching of Atheism. (See exhibit A)

Wherefore, Plaintiff does ask this honorable Court to:

1. Reject the findings and recommendations of the Magistrate.
2. Order the Federal Court of the Middle District for Pennsylvania to hear Plaintiff's case.
3. Allow a subpoena for copies of the records of BMSD biology teacher Anne Cryer for the month of January, 2011.
4. Afford Plaintiff the same rights as the Plaintiffs in Kitzmilller.
5. Forbid Defendant to collect any tax from Plaintiff until this case is settled.
